Fellow's Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites.

Dr. JOHN, N. B.

Mr. James I. Fellows, Manufacturing Chemist, Sir.—For several months past I have used your Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites in the treatment of incipient Phthisis, Chronic Bronchitis, and other affections of the chest; and I have no hesitation in stating that it ranks foremost amongst the remedies used in those diseases. Being an excellent nervous tonic, it exerts a direct influence on the nervous system; and through it, it invigorates the body.

It affords me much pleasure to recommend a remedy which is really good in cases for which it is intended, when so many advertised are worse than useless. I am, sir, yours truly,

Phoenix-Like.

We confess we do not like to use the above threadbare word, but it just fits the place designed. At noon March 2, 1879, Reno lay in ashes. Her business houses and residences to the extent of ten blocks had gone up in smoke. Desolation and ruins was present at every hand and hundreds who boasted a home and comfortable circumstances found themselves penniless. It seems strange that such could have been the picture presented by the Garden City seven months ago, but it is a reality, and hovers like a horrid dream in memory's halls. Mark the change. Palatial hotels and business houses have taken the place of desolate walls. Magnificent and costly stocks now fill the places so recently occupied by cinders. And this week Reno is entertaining thousands of guests! What a wonderful change has been wrought! Surely there must be a future for a town possessing such recuperative powers. No wonder our visitors are enthusiastic in their praises, Reno never looked as well before. True several vacant lots stare at one since the holocaust, but the new buildings are better than those destroyed, and the time is not far distant when the Garden City—the City of Schools—will occupy the place conceded her at the head of Nevada's towns.

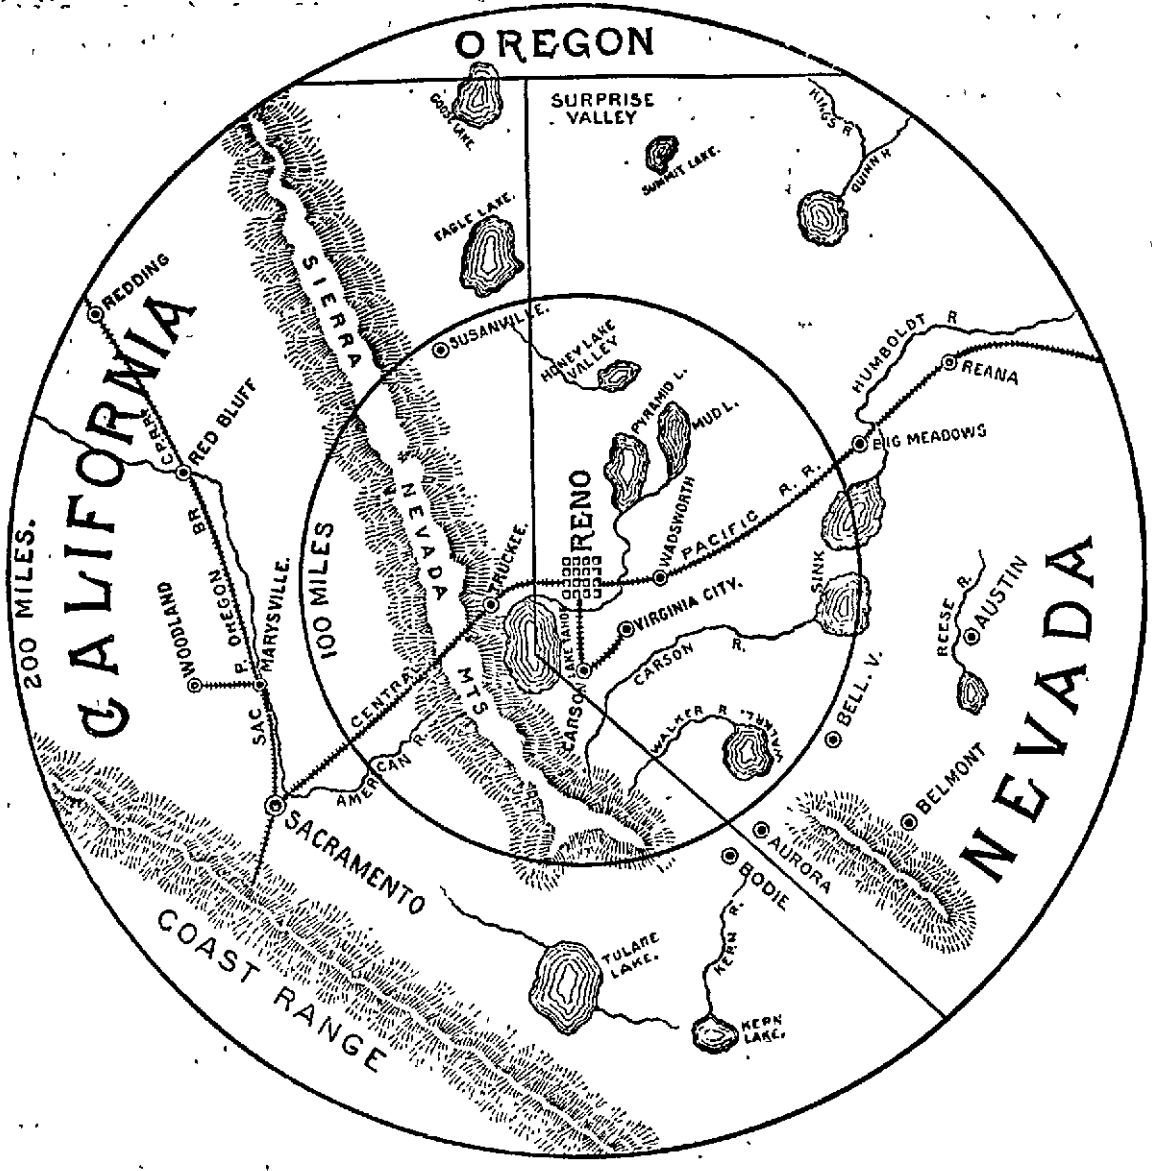

Murder Most Foul.

Yesterday morning the body of Michael Grood was found in the river near the Lake Mills. Three frightful wounds were discovered on his head, and he had evidently been in the water several hours when found. He had been drinking the night before, and at 10 o'clock complained of being robbed of $15. He was not seen again until his body was discovered in the river. He has been in Reno a short time, working as a carpenter. Some time ago he said he had a wife and four children in Pennsylvania. His body was taken to the morgue. No clue to the perpetrator of the deed.

The Pavilion was well attended last night, and a brilliant scene was presented. As to-day is the last day of the Fair everybody will attend and take one more look at the meritorious display.

Shaugbraun again to-night at the Nevada Theater. It is regarded as Boucicault's greatest play. Piper takes the troupe to Virginia next week. Matinee this afternoon, at which "Woman of the Period" will be presented.

Two new eight-foot show cases for sale cheap, inquire of R. W. Jackson at the Pavilion to-day.

MAP OF RENO, AND 200 MILES AROUND.

SIXTH ANNUAL FAIR.

The Military Tournament.

Yesterday was a grand feature of the week, and the attendance at the track was proportionately large. The Society's prize was $150, and in addition thereto was President Stevenson's gold medal worth about $100, both prizes going to winner. The companies competing were the National Guard, of Virginia, Capt. J. A. Robinson; Washington Guard, of Virginia, Capt. J. F. Page, and the Carson Guard, of Carson, Capt. A. Morger. They arrived on the special V. & T. train, and the Washington Guard were the first to enter the grounds, their band playing National music. The Judges were Gen. T. J. Clunie, of Sacramento, Lieut. Wm. Chesley, of Sacramento, and Col. Younger, of San Jose.

The National Guard gave the first exhibition; the Washington Guard next, followed by the Carson Guard. After a two hours drill, the Judges decided the Carson Guards the winner. Each of the three companies ought to have had a prize in our opinion.

Yesterday's Races.

THE FIRST RACE
Was a mile dash between Connor and Tillie C., and was won easily by Connor in 1:50 1/4.

THE SECOND RACE
Was a dash of 1 1/4 miles, and was a red-hot race between Maggie S., Twilight and Oats. The favorite Maggie S. was beaten by Twilight. Time 3:12 1/4.

A WALK OVER.

Oats galloped the 1 1/4 miles stake for forfeit money.

THE THIRD RACE

Was the 1 1/4 mile dash and was a splendid one between Lillie R., Glenita and Madge Duke. It was won in 1:59 by Glenita, Madge Duke second.

CONSOLATION PURSE.

Lillie R., Warwick, Illusion, Maggie S., and Minnie Brighton contested for the consolation purse. This race proved one of the best of the week. It was won by Maggie S. Warwick second, Lillie R. third.

Pool betting was very lively yesterday, and as a rule the favorites proved losers.

It was the general opinion that the sport yesterday was perfectly splendid.

Saturday's Races.

No 23—Trotting—2:35 class; free for all; purse $500; first horse $300, second horse $150, third horse $50.

E V Spencer enters g s Wm Tell.

Geo Cook enters b g Proctor.

Tim Kennedy enters b m Patchen Girl.

C C Powning enters b g Surprise.

Special races for Saturday have been made between Belle H. and Tommy Gates for $800, mile heats three in five. [Declared off on account of the lame legs of Belle H.]

Half-mile dash for $125 between Red Oak, Betsy McGuire and Chandler.

Also a purse of $500 for Maggie O., St. Helena and Red Cross; mile heats, three in five.

The best has been saved for the last. To-day's sport at the Fair Ground will be the most exciting of the week. The special races of themselves are a great attraction, to say nothing of the stock parade and regular races. The weather promises to be good, and there is every reason to expect it to be the best day of the Fair and should be largely attended. And remember the Pavilion to-night.

Reform Club.

In consideration of the Fair, there will not be any meeting of the Reform Club this evening.

A body of learned theologians is now engaged on a revision of the Bible. It is stated that they propose to substitute the word Gehenna for Hell. It will bother us old Biblical readers to get the hang of the new rendering. And we wish it distinctly understood that if the upper window drops down on our hand, or the front door catches our finger in a jamb, or the hammer slips off the nail, there is no certainty that we will adopt the new style of expression and say "Gehenna and Blazes."

The Grand Lodge of Good Templars, of California, is in session in Stockton. Since Nevada cut loose from California's apron strings she does not care much for such announcements. It's so, however.

The White House was honored with a serenade from the Washington Guard, of Virginia, yesterday.

Governor Kinkaid is here attending the Fair.

At Nephi, Utah, last Monday night, Apostle Erasmus Snow, in a harangue to the Saints said; "In spite of the President of the United States and the Government of the United States and its officials, we will do as we please. We will not submit to the President, nor the Government, nor to any Judge, Marshal, Sheriff, Constable, or any other Government official. We will see them in hell first!" To this, says the Salt Lake Tribune, there was a hearty amen all over the house.

The Bodie Morning News has moved into a new building, has a new Campbell press run by steam, and don't seem to be a bit frightened by Mono's Grand Jury. Hit 'em again, Fred.

Hon. A. J. Lockwood, of Ormsby, and Postmaster Atkinson, of Virginia, are in town, taking in the Fair.
